WRITE TO WIN WRITERS' WORKSHOPS

For more than twenty years, through its annual awards event, the San Diego Book Awards has honored unpublished manuscripts by San Diego County residents. This year, the SDBAA is also holding workshops focusing on writing tips to maximize your chances of becoming an awards finalist. The November workshop is:

IT WAS A DARK AND STORMY NIGHT

with Larry Edwards

Improve the quality of your writing, whether for novel, memoir, or short story, with tips from a professional book editor. The workshop will cover narrative voice, dramatic scenes, character development, word selection, sentence structure, and story arcs. Bring a sample of your writing to work on during the class.

November 19, 2011

9:30 a.m. - Noon

10505 Sorrento Valley Road, Suite #100, San Diego, CA 92121

Maximum Participants: 30

Fee paid by November 17, 2011

$20

Pay through PayPal at www.sdbookawards.org or mail check to: SD Book Awards, P.O. Box 501943, San Diego, CA 92150-1943

Fee after November 17, 2011:

$25

About Larry Edwards

Larry Edwards is a freelance book editor (fiction and nonfiction), award-winning investigative journalist, author of two books, and a former newspaper and magazine editor. He serves as a judge for the San Diego Book Awards.